

I do hereby certify that I have received and read the Southern Electric and Controls, LLC substance abuse and testing policy and have had the drug-free workplace program explained to me. I understand that if my performance indicates that it is necessary, I will submit to a drug and/or alcohol test. I also understand that failure to comply with a drug and/or alcohol testing request or a positive confirmed result for the illegal use of drugs and/or alcohol may lead to discipline up to and including termination of employment and/or loss of workers' compensation benefits.*

The illegal use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol are problems that invade the workplace, endangering the health and safety of the abusers and those who work around them. Southern Electric and Controls, LLC is committed to creating and maintaining a workplace free of substance abuse without jeopardizing valued employees' security.

To address this problem, Southern Electric and Controls, LLC has developed a policy regarding the illegal use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol that we believe best serves the interests of all employees. Our policy formally and clearly states that the illegal use of drugs or the abuse of alcohol or prescription drugs will not be tolerated. As a means of maintaining our policy, we have implemented pre-employment and active employee substance abuse testing. This policy was designed with two basic objectives in mind: (1) employees deserve a work environment that is free from the negative effects of drugs and alcohol and the problems associated with their abuse, and (2) Southern Electric and Controls, LLC has a responsibility to maintain a healthy and safe workplace.

To assist us in providing a safe and healthy workplace, we maintain a resource file of information on various means of employee assistance in our community, including but not limited to drug and alcohol abuse programs. Employees are encouraged to use this resource file, which is located at the main business office of Southern Electric and Controls, LLC. In addition, we will distribute this information to employees for their confidential use.

An employee whose conduct violates Southern Electric and Controls, LLC Substance Abuse Policy will be disciplined up to and including termination.

We believe that it is important that we all work together to make this company a drug-free workplace as part of our continual efforts to provide a safer and more rewarding place to work.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY STATEMENT

May 1, 2004

Southern Electric and Controls, LLC is committed to providing a safe work environment and to fostering the well-being and health of its employees. That commitment is jeopardized when any Southern Electric and Controls, LLC employee illegally uses drugs on or off the job, comes to work under the influence possesses, distributes or sells drugs in the workplace, or abuses alcohol on the job. Therefore, Southern Electric and Controls, LLC has established the following policy, pursuant to T.C.A. Section 50-9-100 et. Seq.:

- 1. It is a violation of company policy for any employee to use, possess, sell, trade, offer or sale, or offer to buy illegal drugs or otherwise engage in the illegal use of drugs on or off the job.
- 2. It is a violation of company policy for any employee to report to work under the influence of or while possessing in his or her body, blood or urine, illegal drugs in any detectable amount.
- 3. It is a violation of company policy for any employee to report to work under the influence of or impaired by alcohol.
- 4. It is a violation of the company policy for any employee to use prescription drugs illegally, i.e. to use prescription drugs that have not been legally obtained or in a manner or for a purpose other than as prescribed. However, nothing in this policy precludes the appropriate use of legally prescribed medications.
- 5. Violations of this policy are subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

It is the responsibility of the company's supervisors to counsel employees whenever they see changes in performance or behavior that suggest an employee has a drug problem. Although it is not the supervisor's job to diagnose personal problems, the supervisor should encourage such employees to seek help and advise them about available resources for getting help. Everyone shares responsibility for maintaining a safe work environment, and co-workers should encourage anyone who has a drug problem to seek help.

The goal of this policy is to balance our respect for individual with the need to maintain a safe, productive and drug-free environment. The intent of this policy is to offer a helping hand to those who need it, while sending a clear message that the illegal use of drugs and the abuse of alcohol are incompatible with employment at Southern Electric and Controls, LLC.

This Company will not discriminate against applicants for employment because of a past history of drug or alcohol abuse. It is the current illegal use of drugs and/or abuse of alcohol, preventing employees from performing their jobs properly, that this Company will not tolerate.

EMPLOYEE DRUG TESTING

This Company has adopted testing practices to identify employees who illegally use drugs on or off the job or who abuse alcohol on the job. It shall be a condition of employment for all employees to submit to substance abuse testing under the following circumstances:

1. When there is reasonable suspicion to believe that an employee is illegally using drugs or abusing alcohol. 'Reasonable suspicion' is based on a belief that an employee is using or has used drugs or alcohol in violation of the employer's policy drawn from specific objective and articulable fact and reasonable inferences drawn from those facts in light of experience. Among other things, such facts and inferences may be based upon, but not limited to, the following:
 - A. Observable phenomena while at work such as direct observation of substance abuse or of the physical symptoms or manifestations of being impaired due to substance abuse.
 - B. Abnormal conduct or erratic behavior while at work or a significant deterioration in work performance.
 - C. A report of substance abuse provided by a reliable and credible source.
 - D. Evidence that an individual has tampered with any substance abuse test during is or her employment with the current employer.
 - E. Information that an employee has caused or contributed to an accident while at work.
 - F. Evidence that an employee has used, possessed, sold, solicited, or transferred drugs while working or while on the employer's premises or while operating the employer's vehicle, machinery, or equipment.
2. When employees have caused or contributed to an on-the-job injury that resulted in a loss of work-time, which means any period of time during which an employee stops performing the normal duties of employment and leaves the place of employment to seek care from a licensed medical provider. An employer may send employees for a substance abuse test if they are involved in on-the-job accidents where personal injury or damage to company property occurs.

3. As part of a follow-up program to treatment for drug abuse.
4. Routine fitness-for-duty drug or alcohol testing. A covered employer must require an employee to submit to a drug or alcohol test if the test is conducted as part of a routinely scheduled employee fitness-for-duty medical examination where the examinations are required by; law, regulation, are part of the covered employer's established policy, or one that is scheduled routinely for all members of an employment classification group.

ALCOHOL TESTING

The consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages on this Company's premises is prohibited. (Company sponsored social activities which may include the serving of alcoholic beverages are not included in this provision.) An employee whose normal faculties are impaired due to alcoholic beverages, or whose blood alcohol level tests .10% by weight for non-safety sensitive positions, or .04% for safety sensitive positions, while on duty/company business shall be guilty of misconduct, and shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

REFUSAL TO SUBMIT

Failure to submit to a required substance abuse test also is misconduct and also shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR JOB APPLICANTS AND EMPLOYEES

When an employee or job applicant submits to a drug and/or alcohol test, they will be given a form by the specimen collector that contains a list of common medications and substances which may alter or affect the outcome of a drug or alcohol test. This form will also have a space for the donor to provide any information that he/she considers relevant to the test, including the identification of currently or recently used prescription or non-prescription medication or other relevant information. The information form should be kept by the job applicant or employee for their personal use. If the job applicant or employee has a positive confirmed test result a medical review officer will attempt to contact the individual in order to privately discuss the findings with that person. The job applicant or employee should keep the form as a "reminder" to discuss this information at that time. The medical review officer will take this information into account when interpreting any positive confirmed test results. The information provided shall be treated as confidential and will not be given to the employer. Employees and job applicants have the right to consult with a medical review officer for technical information regarding prescription and non-prescription medicine.

It is the responsibility of every employee or job applicant to notify the testing laboratory of any administrative or civil action brought pursuant to TCA Section 50-9-100 et. Seq., Drug-Free Workplace Programs.

The company offers resource information on various means of employee assistance in our community, including but not limited to drug and alcohol abuse programs. Employees are encouraged to use this resource file; which is located at the business office of Southern Electric and Controls, LLC. In addition, we will distribute this information to employees for their confidential use.

GENERAL PROCEDURES

Any employee reporting to work visibly impaired will be deemed unable to perform required duties and will not be allowed to work. If possible the employee's supervisor will first seek another supervisor's opinion to confirm the employee's status. Next, the supervisor will consult privately with the employee to determine the cause of the observation, including whether substance abuse has occurred. If, in the opinion of the supervisor, the employee is considered impaired, the employee will be sent home or to a medical facility by taxi or other safe transportation alternative – depending on the determination of the observed impairment – and accompanied by the supervisor or another employee if necessary. A drug or alcohol test may be in order. An impaired employee will not be allowed to drive.

OPPORTUNITY TO CONTEST OR EXPLAIN TEST RESULTS

Employees and job applicants who have a positive confirmed drug or alcohol test result may explain or contest the result to the medical review officer within five (5) working days after receiving written notification of the test result from the medical review officer; if an employee's or job applicant's explanation or challenge is unsatisfactory to the medical review officer, the medical review officer shall report a positive test result back to the company; a person may contest the drug test result pursuant to rules adopted by the Tennessee Department of Labor.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The confidentiality of any information received by the employer through a substance abuse testing program shall be maintained, except as otherwise provided by law.

JOB APPLICANT DRUG TESTING

All job applicants at this Company will undergo testing for substance abuse as a condition of employment. Any applicant with a confirmed positive test result will be denied employment.

Applicants will be required to submit voluntarily to a urinalysis test at a laboratory chosen by this Company, and by signing a consent agreement will release this Company from liability.

If the physician, official or lab personnel has reasonable suspicion to believe that the job-applicant has tampered with the specimen, the applicant will not be considered for employment.

The provisions of this policy are subject to any applicable collective bargaining agreement or contract and include the right of appeal to the applicable court.

Substance abuse testing for job applicants and employees will include a urinalysis screen for the following drugs:

Amphetamines: “speed”, “uppers”, etc.

Cannabinoids: THC, marijuana, hashish, “pot”, “grass”, “hash”, etc.

Cocaine: “coke”, “crack”, etc.

Phencyclidine: PCP, “angel dust.”

Opiates: Narcotics, Heroin, Codeine, Morphine, “smack, dope, etc...”.

Alcohol (Not required for job applicant testing): Any “Alcoholic Beverage”, all liquid medications containing ethyl alcohol (ethanol). Please read the label for content. For example: Vicks Nyquil is 25% (50 proof) ethyl alcohol, Comtrex is 20% (40 proof), Contac Severe Cold Formula Night Strength is 25% (50 proof) and Listerine is 26.9% (54 proof).
